Re: Tariff Classification Opinion – Bread Crumbs

We refer to your application for tariff classification opinion for Bread Crumbs on behalf of your client Dhee Distributors.

According to the samples provided it is made from tiny pieces of unsold bread and baked bread. It contains the ingredients such as cereals(wheat ,rye) , Barley, Oatbarani , Water Yeast , Salt , Vegetable Oil, Maize , Starch , Milk Powder, Rice , Bran Vegetable Fiber, Mineral , Iron etc. The product is used as coating in roasting and deep frying etc.

In our opinion the Bread Crumbs are appropriately classifiable under Tariff item 1905.90.90

I hope the above clarifies your doubt regarding classification of the above product.

Yours faithfully
